 which I will show you. <sup>2</sup> And I will make of you a people mighty, w-A-brak-k, w-A-gdulh shem-k, w-hy-i and I will bless you, and I will make great your name, that you may be brakah. W-A-brakh m-brak-yk, w-m-qalal-k a blessing. <sup>3</sup> And I will bless them that bless you, and them that curse you A-arh. W-n-brakw b-k kl mshpahot h-adma.
 I will curse. And will be blessed in you all the people of the earth.
 W-ylk Abrm kashr dbr al-yw Yhwh, w-ylk et-w Lot.
<sup>4</sup> And went Abram even as Yahuuah told to him, and went with him Lot.
 W-Abrm bn hamsh shnim w-shbeim shnh b-tsa-tw m-Hrn.
 Abram was five years upon seventy years when he went out of Haran.
 Wi-qa Abrm et Sari isht-w, wat Lot bn ah-yw wet kl <sup>5</sup> And took Abram besides Sarai his wife, Lot the son of his brother with all rkuush-mashr rkash-w, wat h-nphsh ashra-w their goods which they had gotten, and the souls which they had sired b-Hrn. W-yotsa-w l-lkt erts-h Knon. Wi-ba-w in Haran. And they departed to go into the land of Kenon. And they came erts-h Knon. into the land of Kenon.
 Wi-obr Abrm b-erts ad mquum Shkem, ad <sup>6</sup> And passed over Abram into the land on to the place Shechem, to alon Morh. W-h-Knony az b-erts. Wi-ra the oak of Moreh. And the Kenoni was then in the land. <sup>7</sup> Then appeared Yhwh al Abrm wi-amr, L-zra-k A-tn at h-erts. H-zot wi-bn Yahuuah to Abram and said, To your seed I will give this land. He thus built shom mzbaiia l-Yhwh h-n-raaw al-yw. W-y-otaq there an altar to Yahuuah who had appeared to him. <sup>8</sup> Then he departed m-shom h-har-h m-kdm l-Byth-el, w-yta ahl-h: from there to a mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent: Byth-el m-yom w-h-Ay m-kdm, w-y-bn shom mzbaiia Bethel on the west and Ai on the east, and he built there an altar l-Yhwh, w-y-qra b-shm Yhwh. W-y-sa to Yahuuah, and he called out to the name Yahuuah. <sup>9</sup> And then dislodged Abrm halok w-nasoa h-Negb-h.
 Abram going and journeying to the Negeb.

W-y-hy rob b-erts. W-grad Abrm <sup>10</sup> After this came a starving in the land. And went down Abram into Egypt to lodge there, for sore was the starving in the land.

 W-i-hy kashr h-qrab l-bou Mzraim-h, wy-amr al Sari <sup>11</sup> And it was when he came nearby to enter into Egypt, he said to Sarai isht-w, Hna, na ydat-Y ky isha yfat mireh a-t. his wife, Note, I know that a woman fair to look upon are you.
 W-hy ky y-ra-w atk h-Mzraim, <sup>12</sup> And it will come to pass therefore when they see you the Egyptians, w-amr-w, isht-W zot. W-hrg-w et-y, atk-w that they will say, His wife she is. And so they will slay me, but you for me by reason of you, and will live my soul for your sake.

 Wi-hy k-bou Abrm Mzraim-h, wi-raaw h-Mzraim <sup>14</sup> As soon as entered Abram into Egypt, then saw the Egyptians at h-isha ky yfa h-wa mad. Wi-raaw ath sri the woman that she was utmost fair. <sup>15</sup> Also saw her the princes of Wi-raaw ath sri Phroh, wi-halal-w ath al Phroh, w-t-qa Pharaoh, and they praised her in front of Pharaoh, and thus they took h-isha byith Phroh: W-l-Abrm h-y-tob the woman to the house of Pharaoh: <sup>16</sup> And to Abram he did good b-obuur-h, w-y-hy l-w tsown, w-boqr w-hemorim, for her sake, so that he had to him sheep, oxen and he-donkeys, w-aebedim, w-shfaht, w-atownt w-gmalim. Wi-nga
